Gage County Historical Museum

The Gage County Museum is located in the Burlington Depot at 2nd and Court Streets in Beatrice. The Depot building, completed in 1906, is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The Neo-Classical Revival style of the depot was chosen to reflect the growth and affluence of Beatrice.

The Gage County Museum is located in the 1906 Burlington Depot and adjacent buildings. As a County History Museum, exhibits focus on the history of the communities and the people in Gage County from 1854, up until 40 years ago.

Displays on each town in the county are featured, as well as displays on locally manufactured items which illustrate the history of industrial development and agricultural progress.

An 1890s caboose and other railroad artifacts help illustrate the history of the railroads in Gage County until 1950.

The Gage County Bank building was completed in 1874 and stands on the northeast corner of 5th and Court Streets.

Inside the museum, pictures from the museum's fine photographic collection illustrate the history of Gage County. Larger collections are rotated so visitors can see the variety of artifacts preserved by the museum. On permanent display is an exhibit on Robert Taylor, a famous actor who was born in Filley and raised in Beatrice. The medical and dental history of Gage County is featured in the former depot freight room. The interior of the museum has the original slate tile floor and oak paneling. The museum gift shop features books and victorian gifts.

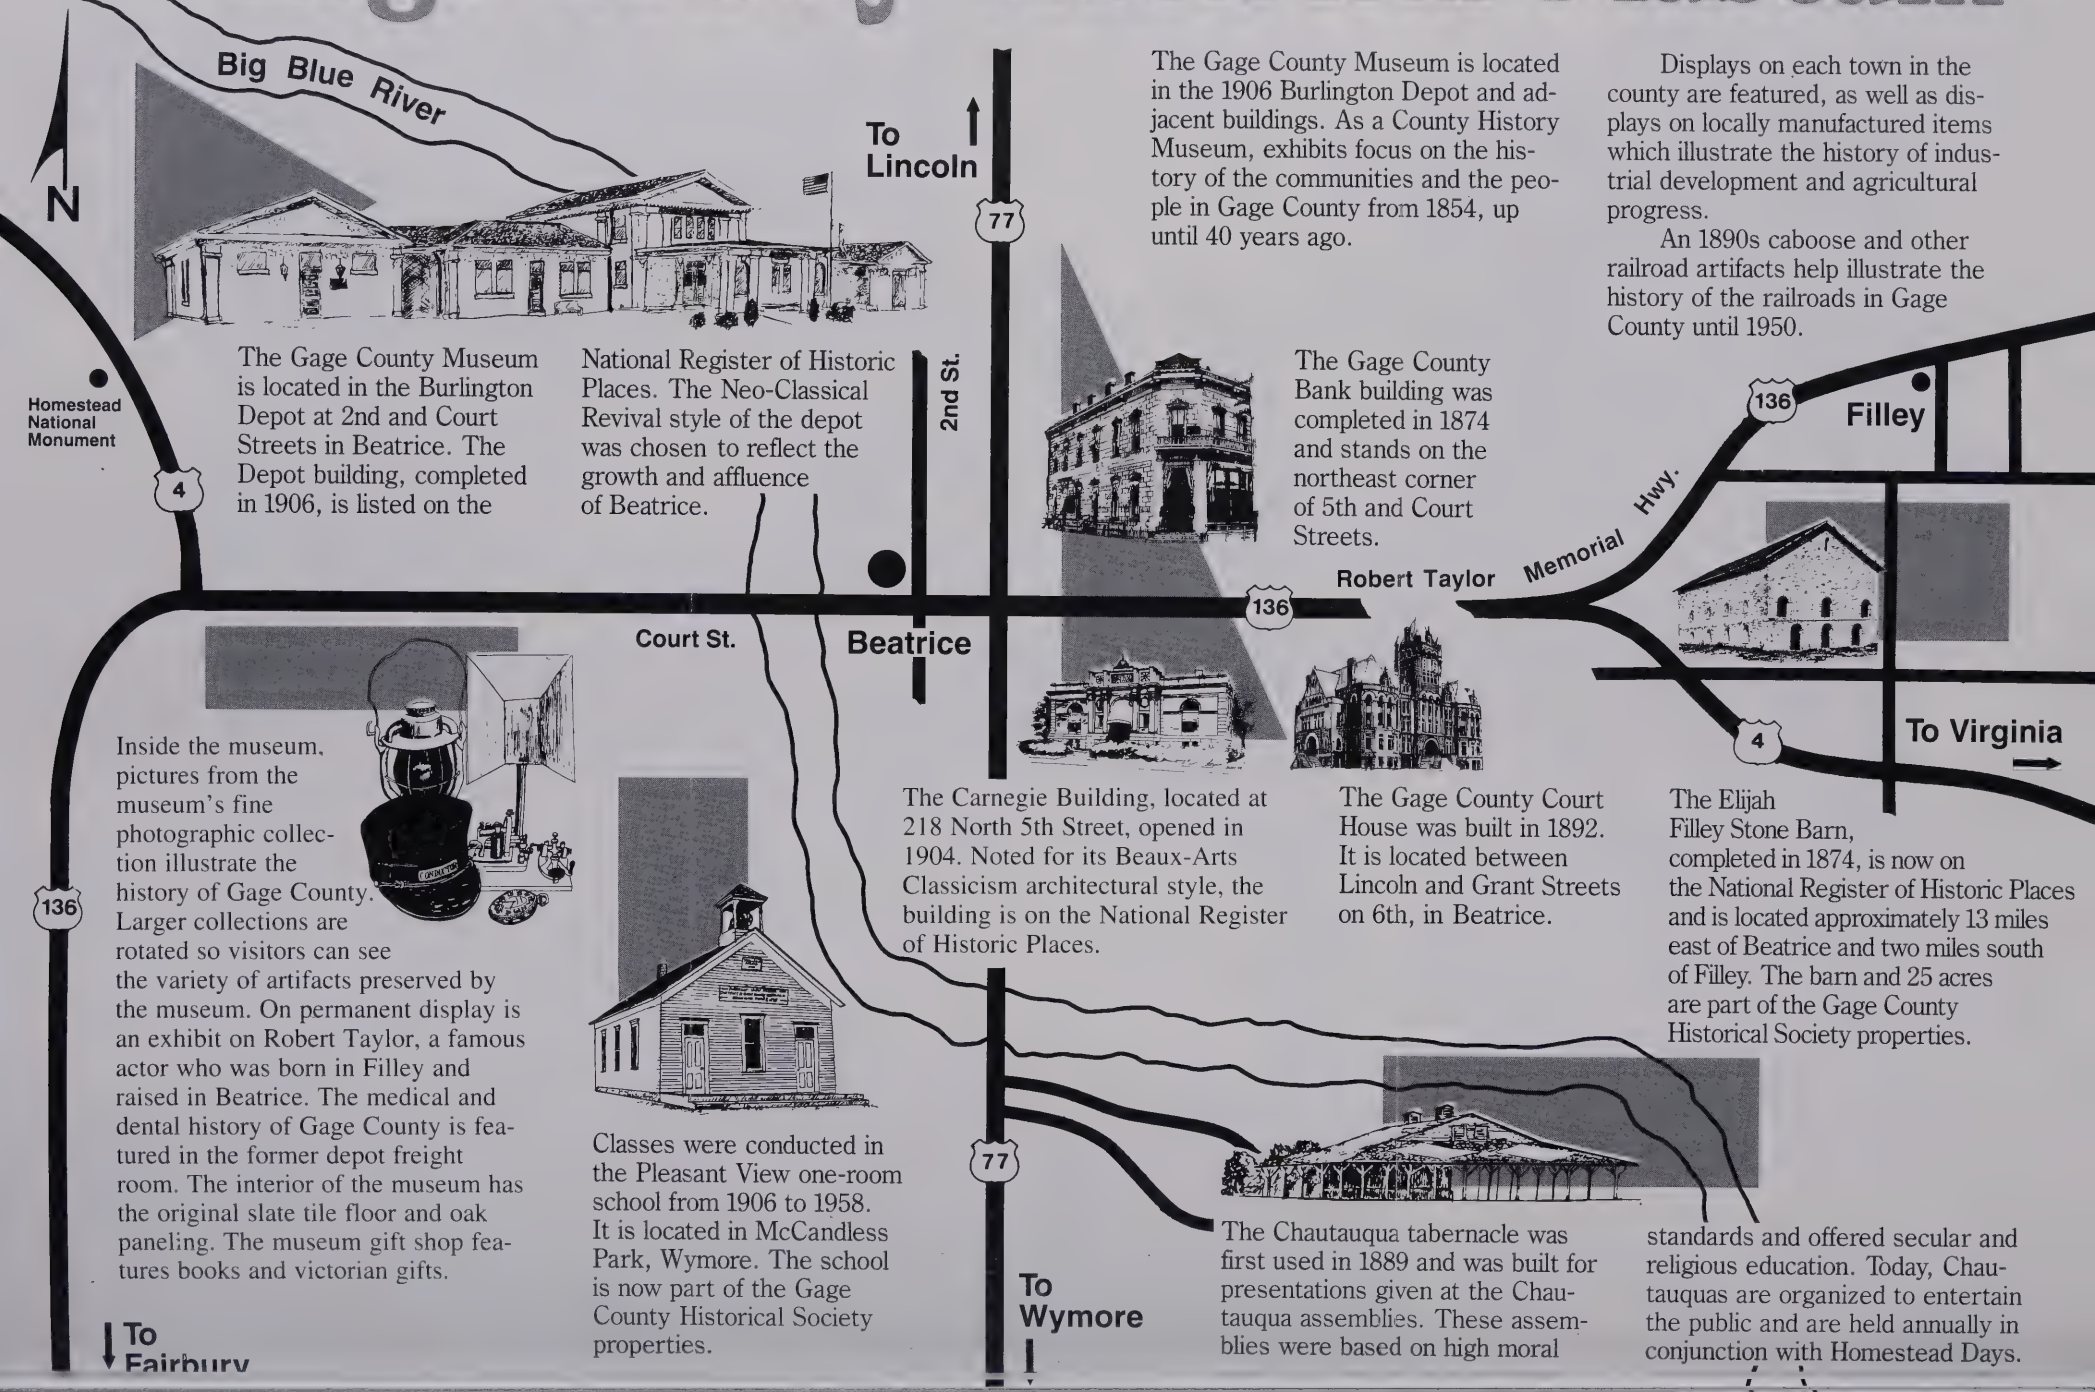
Classes were conducted in the Pleasant View one-room school from 1906 to 1958. It is located in McCandless Park, Wymore. The school is now part of the Gage County Historical Society properties.

The Carnegie Building, located at 218 North 5th Street, opened in 1904. Noted for its Beaux-Arts Classicism architectural style, the building is on the National Register of Historic Places.

The Gage County Court House was built in 1892. It is located between Lincoln and Grant Streets on 6th, in Beatrice.

The Elijah Filley Stone Barn, completed in 1874, is now on the National Register of Historic Places and is located approximately 13 miles east of Beatrice and two miles south of Filley. The barn and 25 acres are part of the Gage County Historical Society properties.

The Chautauqua tabernacle was first used in 1889 and was built for presentations given at the Chautauqua assemblies. These assemblies were based on high moral standards and offered secular and religious education. Today, Chautauquas are organized to entertain the public and are held annually in conjunction with Homestead Days.



The Gage County Historical Society publishes a quarterly newsletter for members, sponsors a variety of community exhibits and educational programs, contributes to county history research and participates in preserving the history of Gage County.

A Living Memorial

IN MY FATHER'S HOUSE

No, not cold beneath the grasses,
Not close-walled within the tomb;
Rather, in my Father's mansion,
Living in another room.

Living, like the one who loves me,
Like my child with cheeks abloom,
Out of sight, at desk or school-book,
Busy in another room.

Nearer than my son whom fortune
Beckons where the strange lands loom;
Just behind the hanging curtain,
Serving in another room.

Shall I doubt my Father's mercy?
Shall I think of death as doom,
Or the stepping o'er the threshold
To a bigger, brighter room?

Shall I blame my Father's wisdom?
Shall I sit enswathed in gloom,
When I know my loves are happy,
Waiting in the other room?

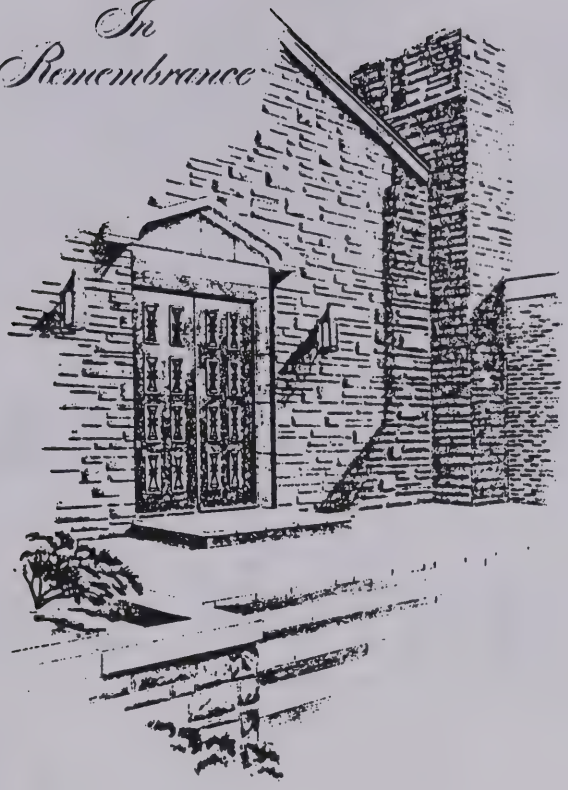
In Remembrance



The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me; Thy rod and
Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

DARLENE LORAINE JIMERSON

April 8, 1930

ACCIDENTS ON STREETS FATAL TO TWO MORE

Two names were added to the list of Denver traffic victims Tuesday.

Mrs. Amelia V. Vervalin, 60 years old, 163 South Lincoln street, died at the Denver General hospital of injuries incurred when she was struck by a street car at South Broadway and Bayaud avenue.

Darline Jimerson, 3 years old, 2535 Champa street, the other victim, died in a police ambulance while she was being taken to the Denver General hospital. She was struck by an automobile in front of her home while crossing the street to a neighborhood store to buy candy.

The accident which proved fatal to Mrs. Vervalin occurred as she was crossing Broadway from east to west. She waited until a street car going north passed.

Then she started on, failing to see the southbound car which struck her and hurled her across the pavement. She was unconscious when Police Surgeon Harry Culver arrived.

Motorman J. Jessie, 421 East Center avenue, told Patrolmen George Vaughn and J. J. O'Donnell the woman was behind the other car and he could not see her until it was too late. He was ordered to appear when wanted, and released.

Darline Jimerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Jimerson, was struck by an automobile driven by Howard Swanson, 27 years old, a carpenter living at 4334 Saint Paul street, who was ordered held without bond pending a complete investigation of the case.

DEATH CAR DRIVER BREAKS DOWN, WEEPS.

Swanson, who broke down and wept when told the child had died, and a playmate of Darline's, Harriett Louise Ranney, 4 years old, also of 2535 Champa street, were apparently the only witnesses to the accident. The order to hold Swanson, for whom the tragedy of the accident was more piquant because he himself lost a baby boy only a few months ago, was issued by District Attorney Earl Wettengel.

According to the report made to Patrolmen John C. Johnson and George Pinneo, Swanson was driving along Champa street at about eighteen miles an hour.

The Jimerson child started across the street in front of him and was well out of the path of his machine when she suddenly turned on her heels.

Before Swanson could bring his machine to a stop the license plate on the front of the car had struck the child and knocked her to the pavement. The blow fractured the little girl's skull.

Before he had fully stopped his car Swanson was out of his machine picking the child up, he said.

Realizing at once that Darline needed medical attention, he looked up and down the street. It was deserted for several blocks. Only one car was parked in the neighborhood and it was unoccupied.

Swanson placed the girl in his machine and sped for police headquarters. En route he ran thru several traffic lights in his haste, he told officers.

CHILD DIES ON WAY TO HOSPITAL.

At headquarters he carried the child into the office of Police Surgeon Harry Culver, who immediately placed her in an ambulance and started on the futile trip to the hospital.

In the meantime Patrolmen Johnson and Pinneo began taking Swanson's version of the accident, while Police Captain George Marland got into communication with the district attorney.

Swanson had just about finished his report when Dr. Culver, returning from the hospital, walked into the room.

"How is the little girl?" he was asked.

The physician shook his head.

"She died before we got her to the hospital."

Swanson broke into uncontrollable tears.

"I have a little girl of my own, Gloria," he sobbed. "She's 2 years old. I lost a baby boy only a few months ago. I wouldn't cause other parents such grief for the world."

CHILD WITNESSES FATAL ACCIDENT.

The girl's body was turned over to Deputy Coroner George H. Bostwick, who said he would confer with District Attorney Wettengel before determining whether to hold an inquest.

Mrs. Jimerson, the girl's mother, learned of the accident from Harriett Ranney.

Harriett watched Swanson put her playmate in his car and then ran into the apartment house where she and the Jimersons live, calling, "Darline's mamma. Darline's mamma."

The childish version of the accident she gave to Mrs. Jimerson was taken by the latter with a grain of salt. The mother, however, was sufficiently alarmed to start a hunt for Darline.

Failing to find the little girl, Mrs. Jimerson was preparing to go to the Denver General hospital when police arrived to notify her of the accident.

Jimerson, the father of the girl, is a grocery clerk.

Darline Jimerson, 3 years old, pictured here, died Tuesday shortly after she had been struck in front of her home, 2535 Champa street, by a car driven by Howard Swanson, 27, 4334 St. Paul street.

The Rose Beyond the Wall

Near shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew,
Shedding its sweetness day and night.

As it grew and blossomed, fair and tall,
Slowly rising to loftier height,
It came to a crevice in the wall,
Through which there shone a beam of light.

Onward it crept with added strength,
With never a thought of fear and pride,
It followed the light through the crevice's length
And unfolded itself on the other side.

The light, the dew, the broadening view,
Were found the same as they were before
And it lost itself in beauties new,
Breathing its fragrance more and more.

Shall claim of death cause us to grieve
And make our courage faint or fall?
Nay, let us faith and hope receive;
The rose still grows beyond the wall.

Scattering fragrance far and wide,
Just as it did in days of yore,
Just as it did on the other side,
Just as it will forever more.

It Is Not Death To Die

It is not death to die,
To leave this weary road,
And midst the brotherhood on high
To be at home with God.

It is not death to close
The eye long dimmed by tears
And wake in glorious repose,
To spend eternal years.

It is not death to bear
The wrench that sets us free
From dungeon chain, to breathe the air
Of boundless liberty.

It is not death to fling
Aside this sinful dust
And rise, on strong, exulting wing,
To live among the just.

Jesus, Thou Prince of Life,
Thy chosen cannot die;
Like Thee, they conquer in the strife
To reign with Thee on high.

— César Malan

Beloved "It is Well"

Beloved, "It is well"
God's ways are always right,
And perfect love is o'er them all
Tho' far above our sight.

Beloved, "It is well"
Tho' deep and sore the smart,
The hand that wounds knows how to bind
And heal the broken heart.

Beloved, "It is well"
Tho' sorrow clouds our way,
'Twill only make the joy more dear
That ushers in the day.

Beloved, "It is well"
The path that Jesus trod,
Tho' rough and strait and dark it be
Leads home to heaven and God.

When All Is Done

WHEN all is done, and my last word
is said,
And ye who loved me murmur,
"He is dead,"
Let no one weep, for fear that
I should know,
And sorrow too, that ye should sorrow so.

When all is done, say not my day is o'er,
And that through night I seek
a dimmer shore;
Say rather that my morn has just begun,—
I greet the dawn and not a setting sun,
When all is done.

—Paul L. Dunbar

My Beloved Ones

LORD, make me one with Thine own faithful ones,
Thy saints who love Thee and are loved by Thee;
Till the day break and till the shadows flee
At one with them in alms and orisons:
At one with him who toils and him
who runs,
And him who yearns for union yet to be;
At one with all who throng the crystal sea
And wait the setting of our moons
and suns.
Ah, my beloved ones gone on before,
Who looked not back with hand
upon the plough!
If beautiful to me while still in sight
How beautiful must be your aspects now;
Your unknown, well-known aspects
in that light
Which clouds shall never cloud forevermore.

The Unseen Bridge

THERE is a bridge, where of the span
Is rooted in the heart of man,
And reaches, without pile or rod,
Unto the Great White Throne of God.
Its traffic is in human sighs
Fervently wafted to the skies;
'Tis the one pathway from Despair;
And it is called the Bridge of Prayer.

— Gilbert Thomas

The Lasting Quality of Love

THE comrade that once marched with me,
Or dared adventure keen,
My spirit's comrade still shall be
Though silence intervene.

The friend with whom I once have shared
Some banquet of the soul
Can never from my heart be spared
Though seas between us roll.

This lasting quality of love
A part I take to be
Of that safe treasure laid above—
And—immortality.

IN MEMORIAM

Your presence here today is both a tribute to the departed, and a ministry to the living. That these reverent and beautiful services may enshrine in loving memory the character and spirit of the one whom we assemble here to honor is the primary purpose of this memorial.

That this memory may be one of beauty, or inspiration, and solace, let us join in this last tribute not with a sense of irretrievable loss, but with the thought that out of this experience there shall come something very precious . . . something that shall be to all who meet here today a guiding star and a promise.

Not lost to those who love them,
Not dead, just gone before;
They still live in our memory,
And will forevermore.

In Remembrance

The Rose Beyond the Wall

Near shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew,
Shedding its sweetness day and night.

As it grew and blossomed, fair and tall,
Slowly rising to loftier height,
It came to a crevice in the wall,
Through which there shone a beam of light.

Onward it crept with added strength,
With never a thought of fear and pride,
It followed the light through the crevice's length
And unfolded itself on the other side.

The light, the dew, the broadening view,
Were found the same as they were before
And it lost itself in beauties new,
Breathing its fragrance more and more.

Shall claim of death cause us to grieve
And make our courage faint or fall?
Nay, let us faith and hope receive;
The rose still grows beyond the wall.

Scattering fragrance far and wide,
Just as it did in days of yore,
Just as it did on the other side,
Just as it will forever more.

If you have ever been faced with making funeral arrangements, you know well that the many necessary decisions are overwhelming in time of grief. Make these decisions now.

Don't gamble with the future of your family when the WHITE CROSS PLAN costs so little to leave you assured. Remember, even when there is an estate, it often happens that legal complications leave little or no ready cash for the handling of immediate expenses.

The Legend of the Dogwood Tree

AT THE TIME of the crucifixion, the dogwood was the size of the oak and other forest trees So firm and strong was the tree that it was selected as the timber for the cross.

To be used for such a purpose, caused the tree great distress and grief. Jesus observed this and in His gentle pity for all sorrow and suffering, made the tree this promise,

"Never again shall the dogwood grow large enough to be used as a cross. Henceforth it shall be slender, bent and twisted. Its blossoms shall be in the form of a cross with the print of the nails in each petal. In the center of the flower will be the crown of thorns, and all who see it will remember that it was upon a dogwood tree I was crucified. Therefore this tree shall not be destroyed, but cherished as a reminder of my death upon the cross."

ROYAL FRANCIS "BUD" RUCKER

WORLD WAR II

In Remembrance

Twenty-third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want,

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me besides the still waters.

He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell
in the house of the Lord forever.

WORLD WAR II
AUG 5 1922 † JAN 1 1987
ALWAYS IN OUR HEARTS

Lord make me an instrument of Thy peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow
love.
Where there is injury, pardon.
Where there is doubt, faith.
Where there is despair, hope.
Where there is darkness, light.
Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master; grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love;
for it is in giving that we receive,
and it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

ELIZABETH JUNE JIMERSON

"He is not lost who finds the light of sun and stars and God"

Crossing The Bar

Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For though from out our bourne of
Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

. . . . . Alfred Tennyson
